

My Study Plan

Use this worksheet to:

1. Define Content Areas: List the most important content areas for your test as defined in the test profile and test framework.
2. Determine Strengths and Weaknesses: Identify your strengths and weaknesses in each content area. If you have taken the test and been unsuccessful in passing, use the diagnostic evaluation provided by Pearson and focus on the weaker content areas.
3. Identify Resources: Identify books, courses, and other resources you plan to use for each content area.
4. Study: Create and commit to a schedule that provides for regular study periods. A good suggestion is two hours a day for 30 days.
